Witch Amaranth
March 6th 1850

My dear Sir, I have been expecting to hear from you that you had sent off the works - particularly your Prospect - which you mean to include in your sale, but which have not yet arrived. Please to let me know what is doing, or are have settled with the Society that the sale should take place in May - about the 22nd.

Let it be desirable that the father should be out more or less months before to give time to prepare - particularly for legal document works which give some time to to make their arrangements.

Permit me to congratulate you on Mr. Piquet's marriage of which I had the very earliest information from Miss Colman.

I see nothing of him who is shut up preparing his memoirs for the Chamber des Revises in succession. If they give him time he will prove his innocence - or at least he will show ample grounds for a new & honest conviction being issued.

Believe me always

Yours very truly
G. Piquet
