Hatting
Vedburg, N.B.
Oct. 20.

My dear Sir,
You see by my date that we are in Sir Walter Scott's country. We are staying with our Chancellor, Lord Pamell, who has built here a house in the style of the old Scotch domestic castle: comfortable, queer, but suited to the climate, & scenery.

We went yesterday at Melrose & Abbotsford. Melrose is small but beautifully landscaped, & full of elaborate & finely executed Scotch work. It came me a deep idea of Scotch art in the 14th century.

Abbotsford disappoints me. It is a bad

Abbotsford disappointed me. It is a bad, ugly house in an uninteresting country.

My host here expects a quiet season. He however has been to France, the reform question is a sleep, and Palmerston is popular with his heterogeneous cabinet.

Every body envies us our French tour - particularly he went to Val d'Aoste. We tell him that they are quite right. It was me most delightful but hard on very amusing and instructive month.

In about a week we return to business.

A letter from Mr. F. Yeritt has been forwarded to me which I will answer as soon as I return to Kensington.

I have many expressions of kind regards from John & the Lewises, but we have been unable to visit them, as Lady Theresa is occupied by Mrs. Harcourt, her daughter, who has just been improved.
Kindest regards to all your circle ever in love,
Susan Warner
