I have written you about the place we expect you to find for the new school you have been looking for. I have been writing and talking to people who seem to know what they are talking about.

Paul Duran
25th June 1889

to whom sent from Mr. Hartman Monday, January 10th 1863. Postage paid by me and enclosed in a closed envelope.

The following lines are from Henry Jones to Palmerston, 1st March 1851 regarding the blockade of the ports against the pirates of the <sup>Arabian</sup> Gulf. He writes as follows:
"The blockade you have ordered is not now strong enough to stop the pirates. The people are very anxious about it and I hope you will give me some advice in this matter."

you a present of my particular best regards and much love to you from Professor John C. Doherty of the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and his colleagues

Dear Mr. Tolson or Major of your word from me to you, just now and I thank you.
Yours sincerely,
John C. Calhoun

and I am sure you will be pleased to receive his kind regards from me.

Amphibolite
A small area where the amphibolite layer is exposed on the south side of the mountain.

When you get to town go to the first place you come to and ask for a room. If it is not available then go to the next place and so on until you find a place. Then if you have enough money to pay for it don't forget to make a figure of yourself

You have done the best you could to get a good start & I hope it may prove successful, but you do not know the difficulties large & small which will be met with in starting a school. Do they seem too great?
