While you are probably going to range from 100 to 150 you can be fairly good at 100 and even though it's not as good as 150 it's still a good score. If you want to make a good score you have to be able to do well in the first few games you play so you can start off with a good score and then just let the rest of the games fall into place.

work and have not had time to write.
I hope you will excuse me for not

I find myself getting very tired of the work and am beginning to wonder if I will ever have another good day.

Then as we find that you have been given a place in our school and you are a good little boy.
