I was absent with my brother at Dijon and I have written nothing since.
I have given the names to the children as several friends have asked me to do so and I hope you will like them. I am not quite satisfied by them but I have written them down and will let you know as soon as possible.

I am sending 8 or 10 names of first and middle names which I have written in several hands but none which I thought would be suitable for your children.
