The little journal which I kept from home until returning was not kept particularly well, & the remainder of the things which I collected to collect the others were the same.
 I will now write from a paper which I have found among the rest of the papers. The one I have now - I believe was a most complete list of the things which I collected at the time. It was written by the same person who collected the others. It is written in a Latin which is not very good. It is written in one of the languages of the Indians.

[illegible]

It shows much of the historical formation of the city and the growth of the land.
