Sir
As we had not your name in London very shortly we are writing to enquire whether you will do us the pleasure of granting us a sitting on that occasion as we should so much like to include your portrait in our series of Celebrities - a few minutes only being required.
We need hardly say that if your time would be too occupied

Dear Mr Zola
I have the pleasure to inform you that your portrait has been accepted for the series of celebrities which we are publishing in the Talbotype Gallery. I am assured you will be glad to see your name among the names of the celebrities of the day.
I should also be glad to know if you would mind
being included in the series of portraits which we are publishing in the Talbotype Gallery. I am assured you will be glad to see your name among the names of the celebrities of the day.
the celebrities of the day.

Sir
I have been desired by the Political Council of the Club, to thank you for the address which you have given on the rights of the democracy & their plea more at your being able to visit England & the hope that the results of the visit may be of much benefit to the democracy.
