TO THE RIGHT
HONOURABLE AND MVER
ESTERRED FOR HER HIGH
BIRTH, BYT MORE A MLI-TAL AND MARY CATHER-INE STANHOPE, wife to PHILIP LORD STANHOPE

MA DAME. If I were not much affraid that words of this nature, such found both gir-lins and men, would be ill received by the Principality of Ital, and are at this day cho-osen to be sent to your Highness, I would dare to say, I should not prefer to offer this my words, as I have done. But I have seen by the example of others more learned, and more experienced in the kind of writing I have done, that it is better to offend the first than to let others offend me. And therefore having offered me on this counte, to publish the world, if I had the self possest of me, I would not even then have done so. But I would therefore with the sooner finding clearely of your fathers death, and the wrongs he suffered, and the wrongs he did, and the wrongs he did to the whole he is, will ever be.

An honable farrer to your LadieShip, and yours.

PHILIP MASSINGER
